

1.3.4.2 Faculty Representation on the Council for Equity and Community

There shall be ~~six~~ seven faculty representatives who are elected to serve as members of the larger University Council for Equity and Community (CEC). These faculty representatives shall include one college- elected faculty member from each college (College of Arts and Sciences, College of Business, College of Education, College of Health, and P.C. Rossin College of Engineering and Applied Science) and two members-at-large elected by the faculty as a whole. Representatives shall serve three-year staggered terms, each term beginning July 1 of the year of election.

Elected CEC faculty representatives shall represent faculty interests and serve as liaisons between CEC and the faculty for advancing policies and initiatives on diversity and inclusion, coordinating related activities across the community, proposing implementation mechanisms and measurements for progress at the university and unit levels, and enhancing faculty awareness of key issues, concerns and initiatives, related to Lehigh's campus climate and culture. In accordance with CEC bylaws one elected faculty representative shall be elected by the members of the CEC to serve as the CEC Faculty Tri-Chair. The CEC Faculty Tri-Chair is also a liaison to the Board of Trustees Subcommittee on Diversity and Inclusion.
